Applications in plain paper are invited from amongst personnel having minimum qualification as that of a University teacher at the base level (as per ICAR/UGC norms) for rendering contractual service as a teacher in the discipline of Soil & Water Engineering under the Faculty of Agriculture Engineering on a consolidated remuneration of Rs.21,600/- per month for a period of six months for the present (subject to extension). There is no age bar. Retired teacher(s) having the requirement as above and having age below 65 years may also apply. M.Tech. final year students, who will pass out in the academic year 2014-15, also may apply.